PETROGRAD, June 12.—The Russians have captured Demidovka, 15 miles west of Dubno.

ROME, June 12.—The Italians today took the offensive all along the Trentino front, making general advances. The movement will develop into a powerful attack, timed simultaneously with the Russian offensive and the withdrawal of Austrian troops from Trentino.

LONDON, June 12.—The Russian embassy today announced the complete rout of the Austrian armies near Chernowitz. Two entire divisions with all their generals, artillery and ammunition were captured. The Russians are pursuing the remainder. Cossacks are overrunning the territory in the rear of the fleeing armies.

SHORT CHANGE ARTISTS REPORTED WITH CIRCUS

SWINDLERS SAID TO TRAVEL WITH ROBINSON'S SHOW THAT COMES HERE.

ALBANY, Ore., June 12.—That the John Robinson circus had more self-confessed short change artists than any similar organization that has ever visited the city was the statement made today by the local officials.

Several men were short changed in amounts ranging all the way from $2 to $40. And in almost every case the money was returned.

One man who took five dollar gold pieces in exchange for two twenties and a ten came to Sheriff Bodine and stated that he had been presented with gold quarters instead of five dollar gold pieces and thus short changed $10. The sheriff accompanied him to the show grounds and after threatening to place the man in jail if the money was not refunded it was returned.

Another man was short changed $25 in an exchange of small gold for large and going back to the man, accompanied by several others said, "Say mister, you short changed me $25."

"I know I did," said the man, "Here is your money."

Men who had been short-changed all the way from $2 to $5 made similar demands and in every case got their money back.

The sheriff closed down a game that was running in the sidewalk where several cappers were continuously winning from $20 to $50. One local man lost $100 playing the game while many lost smaller amounts.

The men generally started by playing a quarter or a dollar and after doubling their money would chance a five or a twenty. If they were flashing much gold they might be allowed to win when they played their five but only cappers were winning when the twenties were played.

Sheriff Bodine this morning notified

HUGHES IS HOME TO PREPARE PLANS FOR SUMMER CAMPAIGN

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE REFUSES TO STATE IF HE WILL SEE ROOSEVELT.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Hughes returned home today to prepare for the summer campaign. He refused to state whether he will see Roosevelt or whether Frank Hitchcock will be chairman of the national committee. He was all smiles, received the reporters cordially and posed for many pictures. He said his plans for the immediate future were rather uncertain. Henry Taft was among his morning callers.

Wickersham Played Part. WASHINGTON, June 12.—George Wickersham, former attorney general, was the man at the Washington end who helped make the nomination of Hughes possible. It was learned today that Wickersham's visit to Hughes last week was for the purpose of learning whether the justice would accept the nomination. Wickersham told Hughes that his nomination was inevitable, provided he would show the least sign that he would accept. The justice refused to say yes unequivocally. But Wickersham drew the impression that Hughes would accept and communicated this to Hitchcock.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Reporters this afternoon failed to draw a statement from Hughes on the German-American alliance. Twenty newspaper-

ONE ROOSEVELT LEADER TURNS TO HUGHES

Henry Allen, Chief Moderator of the Progressive Convention, Announces That He Will Support Republican Candidate; Declares That Others Will Follow Suit Soon.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Henry Allen, chief moderator of the progressive convention, declared himself for Hughes today. He said that he expected the progressives from the northern and central states to follow suit.

"I think the hour is too important to worry about the name of a party to which a man belongs. If Roosevelt accepts Hughes' splendid statement as meeting the progressive conditions, the majority of the progressives will support Hughes. If Roosevelt declines the progressive nomination, I will support Hughes rather than follow a weak leader of the progressive party."

It was believed that Roosevelt will take an active part in the Hughes campaign. Allen said the proper thing for the progressives to do was to nominate Hughes as their presidential candidate and Parker as vice-president. This would keep the party alive and give the progressives who do not want to return to the republican ranks or affiliate with the democrats, a place to light. Other progressives believe that Victor Murdock will be nominated when Roosevelt finally declines.

Anti-American Feeling Said to be Sweeping Over Mexico

COLUMBUS, June 12.—An anti-American feeling is sweeping Chihuahua, according to refugees leaving the mines and ranches and seeking safety with the expeditionary forces. It was reported today that Mexican agitators are traveling from village to village south of the American lines, making incendiary speeches against the Gringos. The populace and soldiery of Chihuahua City yesterday were scheduled to participate in a demonstration against the Americans. The result of the demonstration is anxiously awaited here.

Trevino's order barred twelve Americans from returning over the border. It was reported that they were hiding with friendly Mexicans.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Conditions in Mexico have become so serious in the past few days that the administration is considering formally calling Carranza's attention to the situation, the state department announced.

Lansing explained that consular reports said that the natives of northern Mexico were showing increased excitement and unrest and that Carranza officials were exhibiting noticeable indifference to the situation.

DEMOCRATS ARE LOOKING TO GET MOOSE LEADERS

M'Combs Will Not State Definitely if Overtures Have Been Made but Radicals May be Invited.

DESIRE PROGRESSIVE VOTES

Some of the Bull Moose Leaders Likely to be Asked to Attend the St. Louis Convention; Democratic Platform May Attract Progressives As Many Moose Planks Incorporated.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—One of the greatest kidnapping enterprises in history was discovered here today. The progressive party is the object. The democratic leaders are the would-be kidnappers.

Roosevelt's refusal to run inspired the kidnapping plan. Democratic committeemen will bend their efforts toward gathering the four million progressive voters. It was reported that the White House is prepared to back the effort.

"Somebody must adopt the child," said M'Combs, smiling, and he added, "all four million of it."

He refused to state whether direct overtures to progressive leaders were proposed. It was intimated that several radical progressives may be invited to attend. Some democrats believed that their platform will attract the progressives. Many Moose planks are being incorporated.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Chairman McCombs of the democratic national committee, announced that he has prepared a resolution for a platform plank demanding a constitutional amendment preventing any federal judge being elected to any other office. The resolution is the direct outgrowth of the nomination of Justice Hughes.

Former Queen and King Return From Rosaria Kingdom

MISS SALLING AND SHERIFF TAYLOR GLAD TO BE COMMON FOLKS AGAIN.

Their brief but eventful reign at an end, Miss Muriel Salling and Sheriff T. D. Taylor, the Queen Muriel and the King Joy of the Portland Rose Festival, arrived home this morning and at once put aside the last vestige of royalty clinging to them to take up again their more prosaic duties at the court house.

Both express themselves as right glad that their day of rulership is over.

"I am tired unto weariness," said Queen Muriel this morning. "My days and nights were crowded so full that there was little time left for rest. I am thankful that it is all over but I will not say that I didn't enjoy myself. I certainly had a beautiful festival over which to rule and the most loyal of subjects, and everything possible was done for my pleasure and comfort."

Sheriff Taylor, too, is wearing a happy smile but his friends suspect that it comes not so much from the memories of his kingly glory as it does from a feeling of satisfaction that he can once again wear the plain and unassuming garb of a private citizen.

The queen and the king had a busy time of it Saturday despite the fact that the festival closed Friday night. In the morning they visited the warships in the harbor and took leave of the officers and men, posing at the same time for motion pictures. In the afternoon, too, they took part in some scenes for the movies.

The motion pictures of the festival are already being shown in Portland and a number of Pendletonians saw them. They will be shown here later.

A large number of Pendleton people have been returning from the festival during the past two days and all lead in their praises of the manner in which Miss Salling and Sheriff Taylor filled the difficult roles which the people of Pendleton had sent them to fill. All agree that this city added lustre to its already illustrious name by its part in the tenth Rose Festival.
